SUMMARY

I work at the intersection of human data, AI evaluation, and operational quality. Currently an AI Trainer at micro1, where I evaluate model outputs against structured rubrics, judging accuracy, consistency, and edge-case behavior to improve the quality of human feedback datasets used to train large language models.

Before AI, I spent 10+ years as a structural CAD and BIM specialist across India, Germany, and the UK, working in AutoCAD, Revit, Tekla, Navisworks, and AllPlan. On the surface that's drafting—in practice it's data quality, validation, and workflow management at scale, where a single inconsistency downstream means real cost. That QA-first mindset is what I bring to human data operations today.

I'm now completing a BBA in Information Technology at Haaga-Helia University of Applied Sciences in Helsinki, focusing on data, software, and AI systems. Open to roles in human data, AI operations, and annotation management.
